The Ursuline Way

Ursuline Support Services is recognized by industry leaders and families alike for our commitment to going above and beyond to treat all clients with dignity, respect and trust. We call this "The Ursuline Way." Whether it's surprising a client on their birthday or keeping them company during difficult transitions, our goal is to always support our clients with kindness. At Ursuline, we'll never turn anyone away who requests help — even if what we can offer is an appropriate referral for a service we do not provide.

"My experience with Ursuline is excellent. I feel free to call if I have special requests or need advice in how to better my finances, and they are always willing to explain my budget in a way I can understand."

— K.B. Ursuline Client

"Ursuline Support Services is uniquely qualified to provide guardianship services to individuals and families who might struggle to meet legal and personal expectations on their own."

— George J. Pettrone, Attorney-At-Law
